General Education: GE

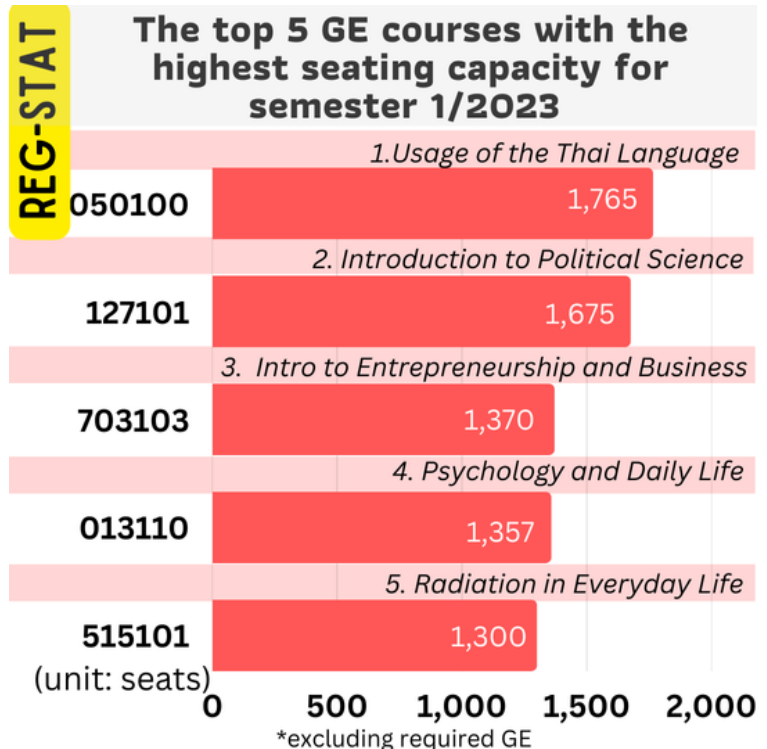

GE courses are provided with the goals to create well-rounded students, and to equip students with basis knowledge which can be applied to everyday lives. For the first semester of Academic Year 2023, the most enrolled GE course is 050100 Usage of the Thai Language.

Study Duration Criterion regarding the Nomination for Honors degree

Students nominated to graduate with honors degree must finish the course of study within the duration designated in the program's study plan, starting from the first semester registered as a student. Leave of Absence semester(s) are not counted toward this study duration.

For student who transferred to another program, the combined duration of study (previous program and current program) is considered. The combined duration must not exceed the duration designated in the new program's study plan.

In case the student withdraws (grade W) from all courses in one semester, the semester is still counted toward the duration of study in accordance with the study plan.

Office Syndrome Workshop
